

LATEST DOINGS IN SPORTLAND

EDITED BY T. F. MAGNER

STILL NO DECISION BY INTERNATIONAL; WILL MEET TODAY

New York, March 28.—Club owners of the International League met in its offices at 52 Vanderbilt avenue yesterday, and when they adjourned late in the evening they still had not made a definite decision regarding the fate of the circuit. Charles Chapin of Rochester announced that the owners would convene again this morning, at which time they hoped to give out a definite statement that they would either continue with a revised lineup or would go into hibernation until the war was over.

Jack Dunn and Charles E. Knapp of Baltimore arrived in time for the afternoon session. J. J. Lannin, owner of the Buffalo club, which forfeited its franchise, was a caller in the afternoon. He was asked to take part in the meeting, but declined.

Chapin said that this was a bad year for minor league baseball, and if the International decided to play it would be on a strictly war basis. He asserted that the day of the high priced baseball player in the smaller league was a thing of the past. He further declared that owners who this year put their teams in the field in order to protest their franchises will come into their own ultimately.

At the meeting were James McCafferty of Toronto, S. Lichtenstein of Montreal, Charles Chapin of Rochester, James R. Price of Newark, Benjamin F. Wilson of Richmond, Benjamin Moulton of Providence, John J. Dunn and Charles E. Knapp of Baltimore.

Joseph J. Lannin, owner of the Buffalo franchise, which was forfeited recently, was at the league's headquarters, but refused to attend the meeting.

President Wilson of Richmond declared that the fans of his town pledged themselves to buy enough season books to support the team. It was also said that McCafferty and Dunn are ready to continue under the conditions that now exist.

Most of the day was taken up with routine questions. If the league does vote to continue this morning, there probably will be a change in the circuit.

Charles H. Ebbets, president of the Brooklyn club, attended the meeting. Ebbets and McCafferty had a long chat over the Lajoie matter. The famous second baseman has refused to be a free agent. It is said that Lajoie reports to the Red Sox, claiming that he will appeal his case to the National Commission. McCafferty stated last night that the Lajoie case was out of his hands.

MAN WHO DEVELOPED FAMOUS HORSE, DIES

Charles T. Patterson, one of the most famous trainers of thoroughbreds in the world, died yesterday morning at his home, Queens, L. I., from acute indigestion. Mr. Patterson was ill on Sunday, but recovering sufficiently to visit Belmont Park track on Monday and train his charges, belonging to Robert L. Gerry.

Charles Patterson was 49 years old. He was born at Pittsburgh. He had three brothers, all of whom are engaged in the horse business. His father at one time was interested in trotting horses.

Few trainers on the American turf were as well known or as popular as Mr. Patterson. In the halcyon days of the turf he developed the speed of the immortal Hamburg and Oranmont and recently added to his fame by developing and developing the speed of the mighty Omar Khayyam.

He purchased the champion three-year-old of last year for C. K. G. Billings and Fred Johnson in England as a yearling for $1,500, and on his arrival here declared that Omar was the equal of either Hamburg or Oranmont. To a majority of veteran turfmen this seemed unbelievable, but early in 1917 Mr. Patterson reiterated this statement and two months later Omar won the Kentucky Derby.

After this victory Mr. Billings quit the racing game and sold the "Fountain of Youth" to a Canadian horseman, for $25,000.

When Mr. Billings sold out his stable Charles Patterson was without a job, but a few months, for Robert L. Gerry, then forming a stable employed him.

With the small string belonging to Mr. Gerry, the noted trainer, had more than a fair amount of success. He took Sharpshooter, which had been racing through the field, and turned him into a first class sprinter and won several races with him.

RED'S OUTFIELDER STRUCK ON NOSE

Montgomery, Ala., March 28.—A foul ball from the bat of Sherwood Magee, at practice yesterday, broke the nose of McHenry, utility outfielder of the Cincinnati Reds.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

The law requires that permits be secured from the mayor and Police Board and the refusal of either would prevent the match. The law also stipulates 15 rounds as the length of a boxing bout.

MIKE DONOVAN LAID AT REST

New York, March 28.—While the bugle corps of the First Field Artillery sounded taps, and a volley of rifle fire awoke the echoes, that was mortal of Mike Donovan was laid at rest in St. Raymond's cemetery yesterday.

Full military honors were accorded to the once mighty warrior, who won more lasting fame and glory as a soldier of America than as the great Mike Donovan of the roped arena.

Every wish of the deceased was complied with. He was buried in his blue uniform of the Grand Army of the Republic. His medals and orders were pinned to his breast, and his sword was placed at his right hand.

The Stars and Stripes, which he followed from Atlanta to the Sea, were draped across his casket. So shall he rest until the last reveille is sounded.

Men from every walk of life gathered at the Donovan home to pay their final respects to the old champion. Young men whose rugged physique bespoke the athlete rubbed shoulders with the slightly built bank clerk. The judiciary and the military, the captain of industry and men from the realm of sport all met upon equal ground. They spoke in whispers, not of Donovan, the fighter, but of Michael Donovan, the man, the friend of former Presidents, the soldier and the humanitarian.

Theodore Roosevelt, a former boxing pupil of Donovan's, telegraphed his regret at being unable to attend the funeral.

An endless stream of sober faced men and women wended their way in and out of the Donovan home all morning, Woodcrest avenue from the home to the Church of the Sacred Heart.

There were many pathetic scenes when the moment came for the family to bid adieu to their father, but hearts were wrung when Arthur, youngest son, now wearing the olive drab of his country, bent over the casket.

The big, broad-shouldered youth, who has faced the gloves of the best middleweights in the ring and who is ready to face the shrapnel rifle overseas, could not smother his grief. He collapsed and was led away weeping like a child.

The New York Athletic club, where Donovan was instructor of boxing for more than a score of years, was well represented. W. H. Page, one-time president of the club, Harry Beevers, Matt Halpin, ex-Judge Jeremiah Mahoney, Fred Fortmyer and other prominent members were on hand.

Capt. J. P. Foley was in command of the military escort. Bill Muldoon, Bill Brown, Jim Pilkington, the former rowing champion; Charles Harvey, John O. Regan of the Metropolitan Bowling club, and hundreds of other sporting men were there.

Six members of the First Ward Artillery of the New York State Guard carried the casket and placed it upon an armored motor car, which was draped in the colors. Twelve members of the Gen. Phil Kearney Post of the G. A. R., of which Donovan was a member, preceded the casket.

The band of the First Field Artillery led the cortege to the church. Mike Donovan was an American. In his youth he faced the fire of the Confederate forces that his country should live undivided. When this war broke out he immediately took up recruiting work. He helped to organize the new First Field Artillery, which has taken the place of the old regiment, now known as the 104th Field Artillery.

He instructed the young men in the 1st in boxing, and it was after a session with the gloves that he contracted pneumonia, which resulted in his death.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

He enlisted in the 1st Infantry of Illinois at the outbreak of the Civil War, and was soon hurled into the maelstrom of battle. He was at Antietam, was in at the fall of Vicksburg, fought with the famous Irish Brigade at Gettysburg, and then was one of the army that marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea. He was in practically every one of the dozen or more pitched battles around Atlanta, and was in the assault on Fort McAllister on the Ogeechee river, near Savannah.

Champion Sprinter Now In Khaki Uniform

Sergeant M. T. Geis, now of Company B, 104th Infantry, Camp Wadsworth, is the amateur Athletic Union 1,000-yard champion for New York City. While on a furlough recently he ran on the winning team, Senior Metropolitan Relay team, in New York City.

MYER'S SINGLE BEATS RED SOX

Little Rock, Ark., March 28.—The Dodgers won their first victory from the Boston Red Sox yesterday in an exhibition game at Camp Pike. The score was 3 to 2.

Though outthrust by the Red Sox, 3 to 2, Brooklyn got two hits in the eighth and scored the run that broke a tie and won the game. A double by Olson, followed by a single by Myers, brought in the winning tally.

Jack Coombs pitched five innings and Grimes finished. Ruth and Mays divided the pitching for Boston. Hoblitzel made three hits, one a triple. Boston scored in the first inning on doubles by Hooper and Strunk. In the seventh Hoblitzel tripled and scored on a put out. Brooklyn made two in the fifth on an error and three singles.

The score:

Brooklyn, (N.)		ab.	r.	h.	po.
Olson, ss.	4	1	1	3	0
O'Mara, 2b.	3	0	0	4	2
Daubert, 1b.	3	0	0	6	0
Myers, cf.	4	1	1	2	0
Johnston, lf.	4	0	2	2	0
Hickman, rf.	4	1	0	2	0
O'Rourke, 3b.	3	0	0	2	1
Miller, c.	3	0	1	5	2
Coombs, p.	2	0	1	0	1
Grimes, p.	1	0	0	1	1
Total	31	3	6	27	8

Boston, (A.)

	ab.	r.	h.	po.
Hooper, rf.	3	1	1	0
Thomas, ss.	4	0	0	4
Strunk, cf.	3	0	2	1
McInnis, 1b.	4	0	0	4
Whiteman, lf.	4	0	0	1
Hoblitzel, 3b.	4	1	3	10
Evers, 2b.	2	0	1	0
Fisher, 2b.	2	0	1	0
Mayer, c.	3	0	4	0
Ruth, p.	2	0	1	0
Mays, p.	2	0	0	1
Schlang, p.	1	0	0	0
Total	34	2	9	24

*Batted for Mayer in ninth. Errors, Olson, Hickman.

Brooklyn, 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 0—3
Boston, 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—2

Two base hits, Hooper, Strunk, Olson. Three base hit, Hoblitzel. Stolen base, Hooper. Earned runs, Boston 2; Brooklyn 1. Sacrifice hit, O'Mara. Double play, Johnston and O'Mara. Left on bases, Boston 7; Brooklyn 6. First base on errors, Boston 1; Brooklyn 2. Bases on balls, off Mays 1; Grimes 2. Hits, off Ruth 3 in 5 innings; Mays 3 in 3; Coombs 7 in 5; Grimes 2 in 4. Struck out, by Ruth 1; Mays 1; Coombs 2. Time of game, 1 hour, 30 minutes. Umpire, Hart.

DEMAREE SHOWS MID-SEASON FORM

Waco, Tex., March 28.—Albertus Demaree, covered himself with garlands of daisies yesterday afternoon by fanning seven men in four innings. It doesn't make any difference that the seven victims were members of the Texas league. This startling performance happened in a game which the Giants won by a score of 3 to 0 against the regular Waco team.

This was the first real game the Giants played, and 'twas a good start, for though they won in a gallop, they met a bunch that made it interesting for the Tigers last week. The regular were in the line-up and celebrated the occasion by wearing their new traveling uniforms, a plain gray jersey.

Anderson and Demaree were the only two called upon to look their opponents over from the mound. Anderson worked through the first five innings, which, by the way, is the longest time a Giant pitcher has worked since the team hit the South.

BROWNS VANQUISH BUSHERS.

Shreveport, La., March 28.—The St. Louis Americans gained an easy victory over the Shreveport nine of the Texas League in an exhibition game here yesterday. The score was 9 to 2.

The score: R. H. E.
Shreveport ..... 3 8 3
St. Louis (A) ..... 9 13 0

Batteries—Munse, Napier and Snyder; Wells, Liebold, Southern and Nnamaker.

SHERIDAN, FAMED ATHLETE, DEAD

Martin Sheridan, one of the most remarkable athletes ever developed in this country and a leading point winner for this country at the Olympic games, died at St. Vincent's Hospital, New York city, last night at 10:55 o'clock.

His condition had been critical most of the day, and stimulants were resorted to in an effort to save his life, but the pneumonia, from which he was suffering, took such a hold on his huge body that it could not be shaken off.

Martin Sheridan was 37 years old yesterday, and a number of his friends had arranged to give him a dinner to celebrate the occasion. Instead, they gathered about late last night to mourn his loss.

He was attached to the First Branch Detective Bureau, and for two or three years has been out of competition. He held the world's record for the discus at 141 feet 4 3/8 inches until Jim Duncan set new figures in 1912. On more than one occasion he won the all-around championship of the Amateur Athletic Union.

MRS. HURD WINS AT PINEHURST

Pinehurst, N. C., March 28.—The North and South championship title was won at Pinehurst yesterday by Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Pittsburgh, who defeated Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, of Philadelphia, in the final contest by 5 up and 3 to play. This is the first time that Mrs. Hurd has ever won the North and South, although she has held at one time or another and for more than a year at a time the national championships of this country, Canada, England and Scotland.

The first consolation trophy went to Miss Sara Fowles, of the Oakmont club, who defeated Mrs. Myra Helmer Pritchard by 3 and 1. The Governor's trophy to the winner of the second eight went to Mrs. J. F. Duray, who defeated Mrs. J. Raymond Price by 2 and 1.

Mrs. Hurd won the final contest by virtue of remarkable play in her short game. She did not mislay an approach from start to finish and did not miss any putts that called for an explanation.

MATTY'S REDS WIN.

Montgomery, Ala., March 28.—Christy Mathewson's Cincinnati Reds defeated the Cleveland Indians here yesterday by the score of 3 to 1. Pete Schneider and "Dutch" Reuther did the pitching for the National Leaguers. Enzmann, Coumbe, Groom pitched for Fohl's tribe.

TODAY IN PUGILISTIC ANNALS.
1911—Johnny Coulon defeated Harry Forbes in ten rounds at Kenosha, Wis.

1912—Harry Lewis defeated Harry Mansfield in twenty rounds at Liverpool.

1912—Frank Moran outpointed Tom Kennedy in ten rounds at New York.

-Sportographs-

SMALL TALK
Said Old Joe Wood to Wild Bill James, it's long since we've been pitching games;
I'd like to play as once I could.
Said Wild Bill James to Old Joe Wood.

The Cincinnati Reds will have a hard time keeping their scoring and other records straight next summer, and all on account of the Magees. Both Lee Magee and Sherwood Magee are on Matty's team, and it looks like trouble.

George Stallings plans to try out Massey as an outfielder this season. Massey was understudy for Johnny Evers at second base during the season of 1917.

Like so many other players, Jimmy Archer has finally come back to the club which gave him his first major league contract. It was with the Pirates that Archer made his big league debut in 1904.

In ten years with the Washington club, Walter Johnson has won 251 games and lost 166, for a winning percentage of .602. Eddie Plank is the only man toiling for at least ten years who has amassed a better set of figures. Johnson has fanned 2,297 batsmen, leading them all in this respect. He has handed out 743 free tickets. He has twirled seventy-three shutouts, also the highest mark for the league, and includes three one-hit games in his record. He has yet to hold the foe hitless. Plank has won 309 games and lost 179, for an average of .629. He has fanned 2,060 batsmen and passed 997. He has officiated in sixty-three whitewashes.

Stuffy McInnis is steadily improving as the regular third baseman of the Red Sox. In the practice games, so far, he has made many brilliant plays in Larry Gardner's old place and unless he suddenly slumps, he will help the former world's champions immeasurably. Manager Barrow says that he is not worrying over McInnis, but is much concerned in the ability of Johnny Evers to cover the middle bag. If Evers can stand the strain, Barrow says that the Red Sox will quickly go to the front and make the White Sox take their dust all season.

John McGraw went away up in the air the other day, but it isn't likely that he'll approve of his pitchers following his example after the season starts.

When notified that he could not use the Phil's field at St. Petersburg, Fla. for practice, Charley Herzog secured a big mitt from the clubhouse and worked outside the grounds, tossing the ball to a native.

Bobby Wallace of the Cardinals is one of the most wonderful men in baseball. He is 43 years old and has played in twenty major league campaigns.

Catcher John Henry and Infielder Red Smith of the Braves are sporting mustaches. They threaten to start the season with their adornment.

According to a despatch from Norfolk, Va., Dave Robertson, the Giant outfielder, has agreed to manage the headquarters teams of the Navy League at the Hampton Roads naval base.

Miller Huggins would be very much interested in any proposition that would add one more experienced right hander to the Yankee pitching staff. He says, however, that he has no desire under way for such a hurler.

Vean Gregg, the veteran southpaw, is working like a beaver to remain with the Athletics. Gregg hasn't been a regular major league pitcher since the Clevelanders sold him to the Red Sox several years ago. He has warmed the bench or has been farmed out to the minors. Gregg's transfer to the Athletics has made him extremely ambitious. He has informed Connie Mack that he would like to pitch three games a week in order to keep his wing in shape. With the Buffalo club last year Gregg led the International League with a record of twenty-one victories and nine defeats, also recording 249 strike outs.

It is a curious fact that in 1906 old Cy Young was seemingly all through. Cy played out, done for. That season he won thirteen and lost twenty-one games. The previous year he had lost one more game than he had won, being the first time in his history that his balance was on the wrong side of the ledger. At the close of the 1906 season, when it was said that Cy was a goner, his record stood 435 won to 235 lost. Yet for three seasons after this slump old Cy took his regular turn in the box, and won well over half of his games, having twenty-one victories to eleven defeats while with the Red Sox in 1908.

MACKMEN LOSE.
Jacksonville, Fla., March 28.—The Philadelphia Americans were yesterday defeated by a soldier team from Camp Johnston. The score was 3 to 1. The soldier boys hit safety 10 times while the leaguers were able to gather only four safeties. The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia (A) ..... 1 4 1
Camp Johnston ..... 3 10 5
Batteries—Adams, Fahey and Perkins, McAvoy; Morgan and Rehor.

Philadelphia Americans were yesterday defeated by a soldier team from Camp Johnston. The score was 3 to 1. The soldier boys hit safety 10 times while the leaguers were able to gather only four safeties. The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia (A) ..... 1 4 1
Camp Johnston ..... 3 10 5
Batteries—Adams, Fahey and Perkins, McAvoy; Morgan and Rehor.

Philadelphia Americans were yesterday defeated by a soldier team from Camp Johnston. The score was 3 to 1. The soldier boys hit safety 10 times while the leaguers were able to gather only four safeties. The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia (A) ..... 1 4 1
Camp Johnston ..... 3 10 5
Batteries—Adams, Fahey and Perkins, McAvoy; Morgan and Rehor.

Philadelphia Americans were yesterday defeated by a soldier team from Camp Johnston. The score was 3 to 1. The soldier boys hit safety 10 times while the leaguers were able to gather only four safeties. The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia (A) ..... 1 4 1
Camp Johnston ..... 3 10 5
Batteries—Adams, Fahey and Perkins, McAvoy; Morgan and Rehor.

Philadelphia Americans were yesterday defeated by a soldier team from Camp Johnston. The score was 3 to 1. The soldier boys hit safety 10 times while the leaguers were able to gather only four safeties. The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia (A) ..... 1 4 1
Camp Johnston ..... 3 10 5
Batteries—Adams, Fahey and Perkins, McAvoy; Morgan and Rehor.

Philadelphia Americans were yesterday defeated by a soldier team from Camp Johnston. The score was 3 to 1. The soldier boys hit safety 10 times while the leaguers were able to gather only four safeties. The score: R. H. E.
Philadelphia (A) ..... 1 4 1
Camp Johnston ..... 3 10 5
Batteries—Adams, Fahey and Perkins, McAvoy; Morgan and Rehor.